$100!

www.newspapers.com/contact

I didn't know that I was billed for this site, which I got no service from. You have nothing I was looking for that day. Not even the newspaper I was looking for. This money you took from me has affected me in my billing which I am falling into debt, and need the money you took from me. I am not to savvy with these things, but I filled out information to register and maybe find my family and something else important, but your site failed to help me in any way, and then hurt me financially last month. I need that money back, I used your site for maybe an hour. and $100 + is way too much, I am begging for a refund, for I am in no state to spare or throw away that money, please I ask can I get a refund I am shocked every month to another mystery site or app taking money from me, so please find it in your heart to return this money.
